

NOTICE CONCERNING CORONAVIRUS/COVID-19

Due to the outbreak of the Coronavirus/COVID-19, the Honorable Harold D. Melton, Chief Justice for the Supreme Court of Georgia has issued a Statewide Judicial Emergency, suspending all Superior and State Court civil and criminal hearings, trials, jury selections and special set court dates until further notice. To obtain information concerning your court hearings, please stay in contact with your attorney.

Courts shall remain open to address essential matters necessary to protect health, safety, and liberty of individuals.

*Essential functions are subject to interpretation; however, some matters that fall into essential function are: (1) where an immediate liberty or safety concern is present requiring the attention of the court as soon as court is available; (2) criminal court search warrants, arrest warrants, initial appearances, and bond reviews; (3) domestic abuse temporary protective orders and restraining orders; (4) juvenile court delinquency detention hearings and emergency removal orders; and (5) mental health commitment hearings.

*Non-essential functions: Many services can be addressed and/or paid for by phone and mailed to you.

*All non-emergency services shall be reviewed on a case by case basis.
